

LongsPeakNet Resource Table Policy

last edited by Gordon Nuttall 16-April-09

The following materials are allowed on the resource table (usually at the entrance next to the sign-in table). Members as well as the membership committee may provide these materials.

- Business Reports / newspapers
- Publicly-available business listings (such as from the library)
- brochures/literature from other job seeker not-for-profits (such as NoCoEntreNet, BoulderNet, NoCoNet, )
- job postings
- Workforce Center's brochures and listing of events
- notices of job fairs
- diagrams/charts relevant to job seekers as approved by the membership committee
- other not-for-profit job seeker groups
- official sponsors. Content as approved by the marketing communications committee

Not allowed

- personal business cards, including consultants, sole proprietors, life coaches, etc.
- business soliciting brochures, including those from business networking groups
- for-profit service providers' business cards or brochures
- Outplacement Services

Exception: That day's speaker may have their business cards, books, and brochures as preapproved by the Programs Committee.

note: The SIGs, which are independent groups even though they oftentimes meet at the same facility, may determine their own policies within the confines of their meeting room.
